

I believe you need to stop Sinclair from fraudulently claiming their "documentary" Stolen Honor is news. It is patently free election material for people who want personal vengeance because they disagree with someone's actions. It is not news, and should not be broadcast so close to the election, nor should it be broadcast without equal time at the least.